

About Arts on the MOVE!

On behalf of The Riddlesbrood Touring Theatre Company, thank you for your interest in supporting our “Arts on the MOVE” Performing Arts Program which culminates in outdoor performances that are FREE to the public and lets children reach new artistic heights, dream, and to discover and create within the magical world of the performing arts.

The cast of the shows include professionally paid actors from the Riddlesbrood Touring Theatre Troupe along with children of all ages from the community. We invite you to become one of our sponsors, who will not only enjoy the Main Stage Show, but also receive valuable marketing opportunities that will enhance your visibility, exposure and image through your involvement.

To date, we have received the support of several major businesses and organizations who are working with us to assure that the Arts Programs will be a success. The addition of your participation will further enhance our ability to provide more classes and opportunities for students to hone their talents, gain experience performing, and reach an even wider audience in the future.

Enclosed is a Sponsorship Investment Package with detailed information about becoming a Sponsor in several different capacities, and the many valuable benefits that are included with each type of Sponsorship. You’ll find that as a sponsor, benefiting the community and receiving extensive publicity and media coverage go hand in hand.

About The Riddlesbrood Touring Theater Company

Riddlesbrood Touring Theatre Company has been presenting original plays and musicals in the Delaware Valley since 2000. Under the artistic direction of Executive Director, Ryan Long, their troupe of talented actors have given rise to Riddlesbrood becoming a formidable theatrical production company known for presenting exceptional, original, interactive shows for audiences of all ages. In addition to Main Stage productions at theaters and historic landmarks, Riddlesbrood also specializes in producing top-quality, live comic entertainment, presented at such diverse venues as restaurants, banquet facilities, halls, private residences, colleges, schools, children's camps and many other locations. Their shows are perfect for dinner theater events, murder mysteries, fundraisers, family reunions, corporate parties, birthday parties, and many other occasions that could be held outdoors using their portable stages that they created in response to the many COVID restrictions on live theater. Riddlesbrood Touring Theatre Company serves predominantly the Delaware Valley including New Jersey, eastern Pennsylvania, and Delaware, although they often travel to venues well beyond this region such as Connecticut, Maryland, New York and Virginia.

About "Peter Pan & The Pirates" (The show this spring)

"Riddlesbrood's Wizard of Oz," is a magical outdoor spectacle where whimsy reigns supreme. This free-to-the-public show is a delightful rendition of the cherished classic, wrapped in Riddlesbrood's signature comic twist. It's not just a play; it's a fantastical journey along the yellow brick road, reimagined with a playful and family-friendly flair. As the curtain rises, audiences are whisked away to a land of wonder, where the familiar tale of Dorothy and her heroic companions unfolds. Expect the unexpected as Riddlesbrood brings its unique blend of humor to the story, tickling your funny bone while staying true to the heart of the original narrative.

ABOUT THE VENUE

Originally, a simple, one room stage coach stop, Historic Smithville at 615 E. Moss Mill Rd, Smithville, NJ 08205, has blossomed into a wonderful memory-making year-round attraction for people of all ages over the past 50 years. When entering the charming village comprised of a multitude of unique shoppes, restaurants and eateries, visitors are greeted by a timeless, hometown feeling as they wander along cobblestone walkways and over foot bridges that take them to a wide variety of shopping and dining experiences interspersed with entertaining rides and activities reminiscent of earlier, simpler times. Now, with the addition of Riddlesbrood Touring Theater Company's original, comedic, musical productions performed on outdoor stages on their Village Green, Historic Smithville has become an acclaimed venue recognized for free family-friendly, live outdoor productions that offer seasonal theatrical entertainment in a warm, relaxing, casual setting.

The historic Towne of Smithville is ALWAYS bustling with activity during the festivals. Its 60 charming specialty shops, multitude of fair vendors, the award-winning historic Smithville Inn restaurant and 3 other restaurants within the village will all be open to visit and enjoy before, during intermissions or after the shows.

For added entertainment, The Smithville Train and The Smithville Carousel, two timeless attractions that evoke romance, adventure and playful fun, will also be open and running both days for children and adults to ride and share an unforgettable experience.
